Wi$eUp Teleconference Call
July 31, 2008
Facing Financial Challenges in an Uncertain Economic Environment, Part II
Closing remarks

Jane Walstedt: Okay. Thank you. And I think at this point I'm going to turn to…I'm going to ask Cynthia Dawkins, a member of the Women's Bureau Team in Washington, D.C. that plans these teleconference calls, to give us closing remarks. Cynthia…

Cynthia Dawkins: Thank you, Jane. On behalf of the Women's Bureau, I'd like to thank our three presenters--William Wiatrowski, Bedda D'Angelo and Michael Fitzgerald-- for providing great tools to help us navigate through “Facing Financial Challenges in an Uncertain Economic Environment, Part 2.”

The economy is experiencing tremendous ups and downs, with job losses, high costs of food and gas, and the list goes on. But I'd like to encourage everyone to do the best that you can. Make sure that you jotted down some of the Web sites that were mentioned on the call, continue to research and fact find, and more importantly, seek expert advice before making any major decisions.

Again, special thanks to our Wi$eUp national partners, the Financial Planning Association and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. I would also like to thank our listeners, especially our Wi$eUp participants, mentors, service providers, and replicating organizations for joining the call.

We'd also like to have your feedback. Let us know what financial topics are on your mind and what you'd like us to address in upcoming calls. You may send your comments or success stories to Cynthia Dawkins at Dawkins.Cynthia@dol.gov.
Again, a transcript and an audio recording of today's call (as well as additional answers to all of the questions asked on the call) will be posted to the Wi$eUp Web site at www.wiseupwomen.org.

Our next Wi$eUp teleconference call is scheduled for September 30, 2008, from 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm Eastern Time. Please join us again and bring a guest. Thank you.
